GENERAL INFORMATION

Brisk Events successfully organized the 2004 EPTA - Pultrusion Industry Fact-Finding Excursion to China.

Brisk Events now plans a new Trade Mission to China in September 2008 to visit the China Composite EXPO in Shanghai and a three day Excursion to visit 10 Chinese Composite product manufacturers.

The dates for the China Composite Exhibition are 17-18-19 Sept 2008.

This time the focus is not just on pultrusion, but we shall look at other automated composite processing technologies, such as continuous laminating, filament winding and closed molding.

The companies to be visited are interested to make commercial contacts with companies from overseas to discuss options for either production licensing for the local Chinese market or manufacturing under license for export.

What Lucintel (formerly E-Composites) says about the CHINESE COMPOSITE INDUSTRY

“Due to the rapid growth in the Chinese composites industry in the last 5 years, China has become the second largest market for composites in the world.

The Chinese composites industry is slated to grow to 2,290,000 tons (5.04 billion lbs) by 2011. The market for finished composites products is slated to grow to 58 billion RMB (US $7.2 billion) by 2011.

China’s composites market will surpass the US composites volume by 2013 and China would become the largest consumer of composite materials in the world by 2013. To illustrate China’s rapid growth, China surpassed the United States to become the world’s largest exporter in total goods and services in 2007.

A lot of changes are happening in the Chinese composites market.

The rapid growth in the Chinese composites market is spurred by growth in pipes, tanks, grating, pultrusion, construction, automotive, electrical, and the electronics markets.

In the last five years the average growth in the overall Chinese composites market was in double digits.”
